1. My dearest Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who has been with me every step of the way in completing this journey.
2. My great, beloved and dearest parents, who became my mother and father. Mother as heaven and father as my hero. Thank you very much for accompanying me to finish college and be able to be at this point. Thank you for being the best parents who always try for anything. Thank you for all the struggles and sincere sacrifices in trying to travel and achieve my life so far, and thank you also for sending so many good prayers for me in completing this lecture to completion. This paper and this degree, Andra.
3. Special thanks to my father, Drs. FX. Suwanto who always gives me encouragement, hugs, and endless prayers in every prostration to the Lord Jesus. Always the first aid in every favor I want. Always reminding me how important health is even though his son is too busy with this thesis. Thank you for surviving until this moment with the pain that shackles you today. Thank you for smiling and working hard for my life. This degree, I give as a gift to you.
4. Class 21 friends who have always accompanied my lecture period in every way, thank you for being part of my lecture journey. Thank you for accompanying in all situations and giving so much encouragement to never give up. Hopefully all the struggles together will not only be limited to lectures and hopefully good things will continue to come to us all in everything we will go through in the future.

5. Father Anselmus Inharjanto SCJ, M.Phil. as academic advisor and Yohanes Heri Pranoto, M.Pd as thesis supervisor who have guided me during the lecture period and provided valuable experience.
