MOTTO AND DEDICATION PAGE

Motto:

“We’ll cut the stars from the sky, and wear it as our prize”

This undergraduate thesis is dedicated to

1. My family, especially my mother; Mariam, my dad; Sujadi, and my sister; Rita, who have always been my greatest source of strength. They continuously push me forward, encourage me to pursue my dreams, and never stop praying for the best in everything I do. Their unwavering support has shaped me into someone who strives to understand the right path toward the future and what is truly best for myself.
2. The lecturers of the English Language Education program at UKMC: Mrs. Anastasia Ronauli Hasibuan, M.Pd., Mr. Yohanes Heri Pranoto, M.Pd., Romo Anselmus Inharjanto SCJ, M. Phil (in ELT), and Miss Ira Irzawati, M. Pd who have taught me many valuable things for my future, and their guidance has helped me continue to push myself to grow and become a better person. Their guidance made me learn the importance of keep on going.
3. Mr. Yohanes Heri Pranoto, M.Pd., my academic advisor, who have guided me academically, supported me, and accompanied me through many things I wanted to pursue during my college years, along with giving me valuable advice throughout my studies at UKMC.
4. Miss Ira Irzawati, M.Pd., my thesis supervisor, who has been a constant source of guidance and support throughout every stage of my thesis journey. She consistently encouraged me to do my best, never gave up on me even during my most challenging moments, and was not only a mentor but also someone who genuinely understood me. Her patience, dedication, and belief in my potential have meant more than words can express.
5. Headmaster, Teachers, and Students of SMP St. Louis who provided me with everything I need through sampling and taking data for this thesis. who provided the space, facilities, and for their support during my data collection and classroom teaching, as well as Sir Edi, who guided me regarding the needs and learning objectives I could pursue and helped me carry out everything correctly.
6. My friends like family; Valen Cia, Pamela Adelia Sidaauruk, Fahdia Feliana Wijayanti, who never hesitated to push me forward even if it meant scolding me. Just to make sure I didn’t give up on what I was working on. They were always there, encouraging me to take short breaks to relieve stress, whether through light-hearted jokes, meaningful conversations, or simply being present. Their constant support, both emotionally and academically, played a role in helping me stay motivated throughout the challenging journey of completing my thesis.

7. Agnes Felisya Unamo, Vewent Fest Levinli, Vinny Angelika, my seniors who supported me with encouragement and prayers, and who helped me throughout my college years and while working on my thesis.
8. My fellow classmates of 2021; Martina Noviandra Puraningtyas, Laura Mislayani, Felyka Patresia, Alexander, Darmawiddy Itih, who motivated me to keep going, and became my companions throughout college years, internship, and the thesis journey. They were not just peers, but fellow fighters who walked alongside me through the ups and downs of university life. With them, my college experience became one of the most cherished memories that will always stay with me.
9. Family of English Education Study Program, a place where I met kind, remarkable, and friendly people. This was where we grew together through various experiences, educational seminars, and inter-cohort gatherings. Getting to know these friends has been one of the most meaningful parts of my journey, and it has played a big role in shaping the person I am today.
