

ABSTRACT

City Fire Command Center Palembang is the headquarters capable of accommodating facilities and equipment that is equipped other facilities such as offices , administrative offices , a center of education and manpower training firefighters. At the headquarters of the fire department units provide specialized firefighting vehicles are not contained in the headquarters area or post firefighters.

Command Center Palembang City Fire Department also serves as the high command that regulates the headquarters area for operational and administrative tasks . With the central headquarters is expected to unite and help the posts firefighters exist so as to provide relief assistance to the people to the maximum.

Building Fire Command Center Palembang city will be equipped with facilities such as dormitories , areas of learning and training , office manager of Palembang city fire department , and the main headquarters of the fire department Palembang. The design of this building will be adapted to the theme "Fire and Water " and adapted to the post-modern architecture .

Keywords : Headquarters , Fire , Fire, Water