

ABSTRACT

CHILDREN'S TRADITIONAL GAME CENTER

Children's Traditional Game Center in Palembang is a cultural tourism that accommodates instruments of learning while playing the traditional game directly and knowing history with teaching them how to make those traditional game tools. Children's Traditional Game Center in Palembang are made up of several facilities, some of which are the indoor traditional game and outdoor, the museum of traditional games, handicraft center, souvenir center, hotel, restaurant, etc. All of these facilities are accommodated in 4 building mass. The Children's Traditional Game Center also has some benefits, among other things: as a place of education and recreation for children in the tourism, making children become creative, make it more sociable, and become more confident, as well as contain the local cultural identities that is guarded and preserved. Theme that is applied to design this Children's Traditional Game Center is learning and playful. This theme presents basic concepts that will create a cheerful, educational, and recreative atmosphere with through child behavior as the primary users seen from the children's circulation and those basic things a child can remember easily. This theme is manifested in the building through the concept of top form with the approval of children's behavior.

Key words: game, traditional game, local culture, game center, child behavior.