

ABSTRACT

Winamp does not support to play 3gp files with extension. Therefore, the development will be carried out to produce a multifunctional music player application that can play a song or video and can also display the lyrics of songs that users are not hard to memorized the lyrics of the song. Final Report titled “Development of the music player application multifunctional” aims to develop a multifunctional music player application. Writing method used is the Waterfall method by conducting interviews and references used to collect data. The conclusion the application of this multifunctional music player can play 3gp file extension and have a good view and has the functions that are quite complete. The conclusion that can be drawn is this application can be developed in a large scale and expected to be used as a learning later.

Kata Kunci :

3gp, Waterfall