ABSTRACT

Agriculture Department is a government that has not been recently issued regulations on the results of retribution. Retributions principal task of the employee records of the types of crops, the amount of revenue levy record, edit the data if there is a change, and create reports on the on-demand retribution superiors. To assist in the running is the principal task designed a software to help process the task of the employees of the plantation is retribution. Development of the device, software by using the methods of Rational Unified Process (RUP), with Unified Modeling Language (UML). language permodelan Unified Modeling Language (UML). At the implementation stage used web-based device programming PHP and using the MySQL database engine. Software that can help produce tasks basic employee retribution.

Keywords: Agriculture Department, Retribution, The Plantation.