This undergraduate thesis is dedicated to:

1. My beloved Savior, Jesus Christ, whose steadfast love and faithfulness have accompanied me throughout every stage of this journey. You have continually guided, strengthened, and opened the way through every challenge and difficulty I encountered. In every prayer, hope, and cry for help, Your presence has provided me with strength, comfort, and guidance, enabling me to persevere and successfully complete this entire process.
2. To my beloved father, Agus Eko Karnen, I would like to express my deepest gratitude for your sacrifices and hard work in providing me with a proper education and for giving me the opportunity to pursue my dreams. Thank you for your unconditional love, prayers, and affection that have always been with me. In every step of my journey, you have been my greatest source of strength and motivation to never give up. This achievement is also dedicated to you with love and gratitude.
3. To my beloved mother, Mbali Asmani, I would like to express my deepest gratitude for your unconditional love, endless prayers that have guided me throughout my journey, and your immense sacrifices in supporting every step of my life. You have always been my greatest source of strength, encouragement, and inspiration in overcoming every challenge until I successfully completed my studies. This achievement is not mine alone, but also yours, and I dedicate it to you with all my love and gratitude.
4. To my beloved brother Charles Samuel and sister Charista Oktaviani, thank you for your unceasing prayers, love, and support throughout every step of this journey. You are one of the reasons I have persevered until this very moment—a source of strength when I'm weary, and the motivation to keep fighting and moving forward. As your older sibling, I simply want to be someone you can be proud of, and your happiness is the goal of every struggle I undertake. I dedicate this success to you as well, and I hope you can experience even greater happiness than I have.

5. Father Anselmus Inharjanto, SCJ, M.Phil., my thesis advisor, who has guided me with great dedication from the very beginning through to the final stages of writing this thesis. I would like to express my deepest gratitude for the time, attention, and patience you have shown throughout the advising process. I also sincerely apologize if, during this process, any of my attitudes or actions were inappropriate.
6. To all the faculty members of the English Language Education Program, I would like to express my deepest and most sincere gratitude for your unwavering support throughout my studies. Thank you for your guidance, knowledge, dedication, and invaluable encouragement, as well as for the meaningful learning experiences, comfort, and inspiration you have shared with me. I am truly grateful for everything I have learned under your guidance. And please accept my deepest apologies if, during my studies, there were any words or actions that, without my realizing it, may have been offensive.
7. To all my classmates in the English Education Class of 2022, thank you for the camaraderie, support, and encouragement you've given me throughout this academic journey. You've been fellow travellers who were always there for me every step of the way, offering encouragement and reassuring me that nothing is too difficult when we face it together—from the very start of our studies to the completion of this program. Thank you for encouraging one another, sharing stories, and going through both the joys and sorrows together. Your presence has made this journey more meaningful and less burdensome to navigate.
8. Thank you to my beloved size L, who has faithfully accompanied me through every step of this journey with patience, offering encouragement, reassuring me that everything can be overcome, and serving as a source of strength during difficult times. Your presence has always given me the confidence that any difficult challenge can be overcome through effort, prayer, and faith. The support and care you have shown have been invaluable in helping me complete this study.

9. The author also extends sincere appreciation to two cherished high school friends, Dewi Setiawati and Lindayani, for their unwavering support, encouragement, prayers, and motivation throughout the preparation of this thesis. Their constant kindness, thoughtful encouragement, and moral support have been an invaluable source of strength, enabling the author to overcome various challenges encountered during the research and writing process and successfully complete this thesis.
10. Finally, to myself, Eka Christi Yanti, thank you for every struggle I've gone through from the very beginning until now. Thank you for staying resilient when you were tired, staying strong when you wanted to give up, and keeping moving forward even when things felt so heavy. You have proven that every wound, every fall, and every tear was never in vain. May this step mark the beginning of a more beautiful and meaningful journey ahead.
